Re: Transcript Order for Appeal Filed

USA v. Donovan Smith

Dear Appellant;

Your Notice of Appeal has been transmitted to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Pursuant to Rule 10.1 of the Fifth Circuit's Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, appellants are required to order transcripts of proceedings in their case within 14 days of filing a Notice of Appeal. If no transcript is needed, the appellant is required to file an order form indicating that no transcript is required.

Requests for cases appealed to the Fifth Circuit should be completed using the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals Transcript Order form. Instructions are included on page 2 of the form.

A separate transcript order form must be completed for each court reporter so please request a transcript form for each court reporter.

Thank you,

KW.
